

I believe that the increasing concentration of ownership of media is very troubling. Our democracy hinges on an informed voter. This does not occur when media is an oligarchy. In addition, I believe that the quality of the news is also weakened.